OUR LIBENESS OF JENNY LIND!

Since the avatar of the great cantartice, it has been a matter of agreeable surp lee to those who have seen her, how strikingly exact to the original is her engraved like ners, found in Rosenberg's edition of her like, published at 25 cens. The biography and portrait of this excellent woman have become as essential to an admiring public as a catalogue at a sale or a programme at the opers. Rosenberg's 'Like of Jenny Lind' is too extensively and favorably known to require more than the simplest reference. A new edition is now ready, in which the steel portrait alone is pronounced worth treble the advertised price of the book—indeed, for perfection, no where elses to be obtained.

Things in Philadelphia

Correspondance of the Tribune,
PHILADELPHIA, Sunday, Sept 8 Yesterday afternoon the Northern Liberty Hose Compary returned to this city from their delightful visit to Albany and your City. They expressed themselves highly pleased with the hospitable manner in which the New Yorkers entertained them. A number of our fire companies received them yesterdsy, and escorted them to the Exchange Hotel, where they partock of a dinner, offered to them by the propertor. them by the proprietor.

I seldomace a firemana' procession, without involuntarily thi king, that if that useful body of men would but purge themselves of that portion which brings disgrace upon the whole, what a preeminent stand they would take among the world's phina-thropists. It each respectable fire company in this city would resolutely resolve to fown down at every fire, any attempt at rowdyism,—would in fact form themselves into a Police, a fire riot would become as rare in Philad-lphia as snow in July. The plan is feasible, and one our firemen should adopt in order to piace them once again in a position where they may challenge the admiration and respect of the country and the world.

Apropos, I learn that the Marion Hose Company of your city spend a few days in Philadelphia, com-nencing on the 15th inst. They may rely on their reception being a hearty one.

Thomas P. Chester, printer, employed on the Delaware State Journal of Wilmington, fell into an area in Marketst last night and broke his leg. George Corson, a Northern Liberties Police Of-ficer, was on Friday evening held to bail in $500, for assault and battery and inciting to riot in a large beer saioon, and $1,000 for allowing a prisoner charged with passing counterfeit money to escape. These are serious charges to be brought home to a Polica Citi. ...

Police Officer.
The printers new scale of rices went into operation in this city on Monday last. I learn that the newspaper offices, with one exception, have agreed to pay the advance, and that the book offices generally have yielded. The printers of this city deserve great credit for the quiet and unanimous manner in which they have carried their object. There have been no blokerings, no petty discussions—all have been actuated by one feeling, and all are well satisfied with the result of their efforts.

A distresing accident happened on Friday af-ternoon, on the Reading Railroad, sear Phenix-ville, about twenty-one miles from this city. As some workmen were engaged in repairing a breach them. All were more or less injured. One named Costello of Manayunk, was almost instantly killed, and another named McClaskey was brought to the Hospital in this city. He will probably recover.

During the coming Fall Election, Mayor Jon will be the Independent candidate, and Dr. W.

A Birkey the Native American candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia. The Whigs have not yet cominated their candidate. On Tuesday evening last, after nineteen unsuccessful ballots, they adjourned without neminating one. They try it again on Tuesday evening next. In the City and Liberties, during the week end-

The enterprising holders are entitled to the sympathies of the public for their read wed misfortune. Prices of Reading Railroad shares and honds have usen well maintained, as the damage upon this route has not been serious. There has been less demand for Riceling bills this week, but the rates are strady at 11072104, the latter rate for the best names. There has been as active demand for Morky, and first-class paper ranges from 7½ to 3½ % cent. and other descriptions at higher rates.

We understand that the tenairs on this road will be completed and housiness rearmed on it by Monday week. The expenses of the repairs will not affect in the slightest degree the Dividend found of the Company. They will be not thought found of the Company. Passage of the California and Utah Bills.

Correspondence of The Tribune.
Washington, Saturday, Sept. 7, 1850. My telegraphic dispatches of last night and this morning, previous to the meeting of the House, enabled you to anticipate, in part at least, the proceedings of to-day. After a brush over the Ewing Committee's Reports, between Mr. RICHARDSON and Mr. VINTON, and the wasting of time on the question of allowing Mr. Vinton to flaish his remarks, he having only ten minutes more, the House passed to the order of the day, the business on the Speaker's table. The first bill was that making appropriations for West Point, as that making appropriations for West Point, as alightly amended by the Senate. This was soon dispatched to the Committee of the Whole. The bill for the admission of the gold-belted State of California was next taken from its dusty resting-place. The reading of its title was the signal for a most spirited contest for the floor. It was awarded to Mr. Boyn who moved the Utah Territorial bill as an amendment, in fulfilment of my foreshadowed programme. Mr. Vinton made a point of order that the amendment was not sermain. The Sprakker overruled his point. Mr. Vinton appealed. Confusion and a motion to table, 86 to 115, and then reversed the decision of the Chair, 87 to 107.

The contest for the floor, on the announcement of The contest for the floor, on the announcement of the above result, was tremendous, indicating that the above result, was tremendous indicating that it was feit to be the last chance. The floor was assigned to Mr. Thompson of Miss. who moved the a long substitute for the California bill, (substantially the same that was proposed by Senator Soule,) to which he added an amendment for the establishment of a Territory below 36° 30°, with the name of "South California." Mr. Thompson proceeded to make a speech, which contained some pretty severe flings at the late Administration, with reference to the agency of T. Butler King pretty severe flings at the late Administration, with reference to the agency of T. BUTLER KING in California. But they had been made so often and so much more forcibly by others, that they feldead, exciting smiles of perfect complaceacy on the Whig side, and of impatience among the opposition. While he was on the floor he was surrounded by a regular "Standing Committee." Among the watchers for the next chance I noticed Messre. the waterers for the next chance Induced alcoses.

McLean of Kentucky, Baker of Illinois, and Campbell of Ohio; and among the Democrats, Messrs. Richardson of Illinois, and Hall of Missouri. Mr. Richardson succeeded. He said he thought there had been "taik" enough, and moved the previous question. Mr. Mzanz ap-pealed to rim to allow him to propose an amendment. Mr. Hichardson consented on condition ment. Mr. Hichardson consented on condition that he would renew his motion for the previous question. Mr. Mrang's ameadment proved to be a most novel "proviso," viz. that certain of his constituents, who had been so foolish as to take sieves to California, might be guaranteed a safe exodus! - It was ruled out of order.

The previous question was then sustained and the main question ordered. The amendment of Mr. Thompson was voted down by Yess 71 ts Nays 134. Next followed the substitute which was similarly disposed of. The feeling of despair, was similarly disposed of. The feeling of despair, was similarly disposed of. The feeling of despair, which had began to throw its shade over the countrances of 369 30° men now became deep and gleomy. A motion to adjourn was moved, for the second time by Mr. Holmes, but he could not get a dozen of votes for a sustainment of a call for the Yess and Nays, nor anything but the feeblest imaginable response, viva voce, while the volley of "Nooos!" was as the firing of srillery. Foor Holmes! A general laugh from the Write side—this brother Waigs, shall I say!)—and the rising of a straggling Ultraist here and there on the opposite side of the hamber, gave him a domosaration which must have abashed seen him. The vote moweame upon the third reading. Is menetration which must have abashed even him.

The vote mow came upon the third reading. It gave the glorious result. The rest was the mercest matter ofform. The previous question was moved, and sustained with but a feeble opposition. A motion to table the bill, followed from Mr. Frathem. Story, and a call for Yess and Nays, with "no-oht no" from the South. A haif a dozen or soof South Carolicians and Mississippians rose in the allirmative and no count, of course, was had in the negative; and then came the final vote. Daring the calling of the roll, the clongated faces of the Southern Ultraists presented a most striking and mournful contrast to the ted faces of the Southern Ultraists presented a most striking and mourful contrast to the laterally extended phyzis of the Northern mess generally, but the Whigs in particular. Even Mr. Toomas ceased his daily claster of bacdying words emphosized in his characteristic way. Poor CLINGMAN sat as mute as a mouse, and as pensive as if he had never received that "valentine" from a Yankee girl in the Gallery! There were no protests, no pistols, no Bowie knives or Arkansas tooth-picts. Mr. Johnson came in, after the announcement, and asked that as it "would make no odds now," he might be allowed to record his vote against the bill. He was gratified, as a matter of course. An ineffectual metion to adjourn followed. There was no difference between the votes on ordering to the third reading and final passage.)

but but little good, and that he is past redemption.
THADDEU! STEVESS now rose and moved to minutes, it went into Committee again. Mr. Barny rose, and expressed the hope that no Southern man would propose any further amendments, seeing the Southern Senators had so generally gone for this bill, including these from his own State. This allusion to Virginia gave Mr. Sendon a pretext for another harangie. He got the steam higher than ever, and taked loudly and definitly of "resistence to the last!" He appealed directly to his Southern brethen. I did not know but that this was the signal for the "pistols," &c. but I saw this was the signal for the "pistols," &c. but I saw none, nor any, the slightest, disposition to try that Mr Firch next offered an amendment, confirm ing the control of the Mexican law, prohibiting Slavery. Mr. SACKETT said a few words. Mr. Toomas fired a telling shot among the Southers Compromisers, charging that they had no right to complain of the North, which created a great sensition. Mr. Skribov rose to rooty "Octas.

wrath having begun to be pointed at one another. Mr. Wellborn of Georgia, was tho next speaker. Though feeble in health and voice, he is always listened to with interest. The crowd had been great in the area and aisles, but it now dispersed at the request of the Chairman. Father HUBBARD of Alabams, followed with an anecdote which threw the House into a fit of boisterous merricaeut ter ail. THURSDAY IN THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Sept. 5. We have passed through what will, indeed, go down on the tide of History as a crisis day. As was generally understood this morning, as the result of the caucusing, overturning, drumming, drilling, threatening and coaxing, of last night, the House reconsidered the vote by which the third reading of the naked Boundary bill was refused yesterday, by 131 Yeas to 75 Nays. reconsideration of Mr. Boyn's amendment, and ditional section to the amendment of Mr. Boyd, to establish a Territorial Government for New Monleco, by adding that "no citizen of the United States shall be deprived of his life, liberty or property except by the judgment of his peers and the laws of the land, and that the Constitution of the United States and such statutes thereof as may not be locally unapplicable to the common law, as it existed with the British Colonies of America until the Fourth of July, 1776, shall be the exclusive law of said Territory on the subject of African Slavery until altered by the proper authorities." Mr. WENTWORTH then moved to commit the hill with instructions to report the principle of the bill with instructions to report the principle of the Wilmot Proviso, and also an enlargement of the boundaries proposed to be given to New-Mexico, in order to save the large strip of country involved in the controversy between the friends of Freedom and her enemies, from the merciless grasp of Texas. He intimated his purpose to move the previous question; but at the same time stated his desire to see a test on whatever amendments, from either the North or the South, it might be wished to make, provided be could do so without losing the to make, provided he could do so without losing the to make, provided he could do so without losing the to make, provided he could do so without losing the to make, provided he could do so without losing the to make, provided he could be so certainly locky on at that juncture; and he was certainly locky on at that juncture; and he was certainly locky on the encountered. Here there was a perfect as he encountered. Here there was a perfect hail-storm of points of order, inquiries of the Chair hail-storm of points of order, inquiries of the Chair was to the prospective Parliamentary machinery, as the first machinery and the provided here. Wilmot Proviso, and also an enlargement of or addition to his own instructions from Mr. Howard of Texas, designed to remove the dis-passage.

The House now went into Committee of the Whole, and the Utah bil was then taken up Mr. Wentworth moved the principle of the Wilmot Proviso, and made an appeal to the generosity (?) of the majority. The question was put by tellers, and gave 69 to 78! Thus has this great safeguard against despotism been not only "wounded" in what was once the House of its friends, but was straigled to death in the Committee of the Whole, where the Yess and Nays could not be had—the prince of its betrayers, John A. McClersand, presiding over the funeral!—perhaps put in the Chair at his own request.

Next came a provision for the protection of Sk-very in Utah, from Mr. Sendon of Virginis, following with a speech foll of fire and fury, his cavernous and luminous eyes glowing like furnace fires. Tellers gave only 35 to 85! Ross, of Pennsylvaoia, going through in the affirmative!!—indicating that the terrible lashing Mrs. Swissielm gave him did but but little good, and that he is past redemption. The House now went into Committee of the opposite side, and at the same moment the crash and jingle of a glass was heard. It proved to be a tumbler which the Chairman's (MCCLERNAND) bammer had smashed when giving an emphatic summons to order! STEVENS exclaimed that it was of no use to cry "Question!" He was very but emphatic.

The Committee rose and reported the bill to the House. Having resolved to stop debate in flye minutes, it went into Committee again. Mr. BAYLY ments Mr. SEDDON got up one, and replied to Mr. Tooms, retorting with the charge that Mr. Tooms himself had forsaken the South, in voting for the Texas Bill. There was some indisposition to hear SEDDON. ("Let him go on! I'll answer him!" from Tooms, in his seat, and "Order! Order!" from the Chair.) Mr. Tooms replied, takeing cround that there was no outgage in admitting ing ground that there was no outrage in admitting Californa! He would maintain this ground at Home. (Applause and calls to order.) This was a new turn, the batteries of Southern which lasted some minutes. Its "point" was in-tended to show that there would be "no fight" af-SIGMA.

Correspondence of The Tribuse.

The backward track having been taken by a process which will be indicated by your telegraphic sketch, until the vote by which Mr. Born's amendment was voted down yesterday was reached, Mr. GRINNELL of Massachusetts moved the reconsideration thereof. Mr. CAMPBELL of Ohio moved to table that motion. But, objection being made by Mr. FOWLER of Massachusetts, the roll was called and gave the vote of 106 to 99 .-The next vote was on the direct question of the reconsideration of air. BOYD's amendment, and resulted: Yeas 106, Nays 99.

This knot having been thus untied, and the House having refused to order the previous question, the way was now open for amendments. Of these there was "any quantity" as you will be prepared to hear. The first which came to light was from Mr. Toomss of Georgia, proposing an additional section to the amendment of Mr. Boyd, to attain the Targitarial Government for Naw Marketshiks a Targitarial Government for Naw Marketshiks a Targitarial Government for Naw Marketshiks.
